

Bishop's Lodge, Hay, NSW:

A balancing act – local community action since 1985.

Bishop's Lodge historic house and heritage rose garden, Hay, NSW, Australia

Bishop's Lodge built in 1888/9 as home to the Anglican Bishops of Riverina. Purchased by Hay Shire Council in 1985.

Bishop's Lodge historic house and heritage rose garden, Hay, NSW, Australia

Glimpses of the house and garden today. How has the property flourished?

Bishop's Lodge historic house and heritage rose garden, Hay, NSW, Australia

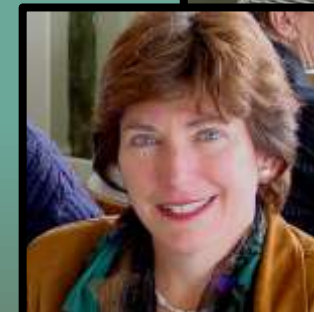

People: winning local support through a range of activities and functions.

Bishop's Lodge historic house and heritage rose garden, Hay, NSW, Australia

People: volunteers are the key.

Bishop's Lodge historic house and heritage rose garden, Hay, NSW, Australia

People: making magical children's memories

Bishop's Lodge historic house and heritage rose garden, Hay, NSW, Australia

People:
school programs to remember.

Bishop's Lodge historic house and heritage rose garden, Hay, NSW, Australia

Pleasures: never underestimate the power of shared food

Bishop's Lodge historic house and heritage rose garden, Hay, NSW, Australia

Pleasures:
musical, operatic
and theatrical performances bringing joy to a range of audiences.

Bishop's Lodge historic house and heritage rose garden, Hay, NSW, Australia

Professionals: building a wide-ranging support network across disciplines and interests.
Innovation in our community curator program.

Bishop's Lodge historic house and heritage rose garden, Hay, NSW, Australia

Professional support from the wider heritage community
Historic Houses Trust of NSW Companion District launch
On 1 November 2001.

Bishop's Lodge historic house and heritage rose garden, Hay, NSW, Australia

Passion: curating local exhibitions showcasing local treasures, fashions, toys, stories and experiences.

Bishop's Lodge historic house and heritage rose garden, Hay, NSW, Australia

Passion: volunteers learning together to enrich understanding and skills.

Bishop's Lodge 2015 volunteer enrichment:
Soldiers, sweethearts and sisters.
Life and death during World War One for the Bishop's Lodge family.

In this year when we are commemorating the centenary of Anzac learn more of their stories, explore the original documents, find ways to care for your own family treasures and discover how to research your own soldiers online.

Saturday 28th March 10.30 am to 3.30 pm.
Includes morning tea and lunch.

Bookings essential. RSVP by leaving a message on 6993 1727 or emailing bishopslodge@westnet.com.au by Wednesday 25th March.

Celebrating 125 years at Bishop's Lodge in 2014:

Free volunteer orientation and enrichment program

Saturdays March 22 and March 29, 2014
- 9.30 am to 3.30 pm

Enjoy two days immersing yourself in the history, garden and architecture of our local treasure, Bishop's Lodge.

A free opportunity for all locals, new and old, to talk, tour, eat, listen, learn and absorb the atmosphere in a relaxed setting.

Includes morning tea and lunch.
Registrations essential.
For more details and to register:
contact Bishop's Lodge on 02 6993 1727 or
bishopslodge@westnet.com.au

Bishop's Lodge historic house and heritage rose garden, Hay, NSW, Australia

Passion: heritage roses and heritage gardening

Bishop's Lodge historic house and heritage rose garden, Hay, NSW, Australia

Produce: Spring Markets every October for 25 years.

Bishop's Lodge Market
...promoting plains produce...

Sunday 21st October 2012
Roset Street, HAY 9am - 4pm

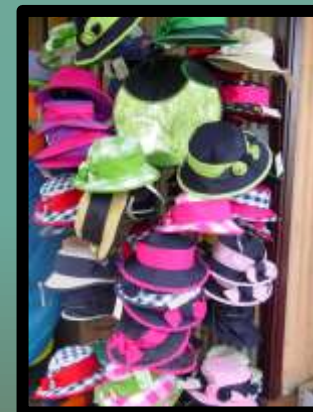

- Soak up the historic atmosphere
- Search for those unique gifts
- Seek out sumptuous fresh produce and gourmet goodies
- Savour brunch or lunch in the shady garden
- Surround yourself with glorious heritage roses

Bishop's Lodge Market
- a sensational day out since 1990 -

Entry to the Bishop's Lodge Market is just $5, with children under 12 free!

All enquiries to Bishop's Lodge: 02 6993 1727
or bishopslodge@westnet.com.au

See you there!

Products – original heritage roses, sweet pea seeds from the garden, bookmarks and postcards or our published History and Guidebook all give visitors tangible reminders of their experiences visiting Bishop's Lodge.

Bishop's Lodge historic house and heritage rose garden, Hay, NSW, Australia

“It is fitting that such a house as Bishop's Lodge – unconventional, unprejudiced by common attitudes – should have been conserved as it has been, tenderly, honestly and with considerable innovation.

The house, and now its future, are tributes to the values of new and different ways of thinking – the values of ‘new obume’ ”

Bishop's Lodge historic house and heritage rose garden, Hay, NSW, Australia

Bishop's Lodge: engaging people with real projects, produce, performance and professional support and thus allowing them to explore heritage passions and pleasures in a local, remote setting since 1985. Please do call in if you're passing ...